Reanoke Outplays Lynchburg. By Southern Associate ! Press.

ROANORU, Va., July S.—Roanoko was an easy winner in the game with Lynchburg this afternoon. The visit-ors were ragged in the field at times and could not find McCann, failing to bunch their hits after the first. They were outplayed at every point. The features were the fielding of Padden and Viox, a running eatch in deep cen ter by Smith and the batting of Fultz, Score.

Every man on the Norfolks had his eye on the ball yesterday except Cote, Herr and O'Hagan.

There are more home run hits made in the Petersburg park than on any other ball grounds in the State.

Kelly and Thernton each made two home runs in yesterday's game. Kelly had four hits and Thornton three.

Mr. Baird has resigned as ticket agent of the Portsmouth team. Another young man takes his place to day.

Petersburg has signed a new pitcher named Hines, from I'hiladelphia. He reported for duty yesterday afternoon.

What the "Clams" did for Mr. James yesterday was a plenty, although the "Farmers" treated Eddie Herr to the same kind of a reception.

First baseman I'urner, of Petersburg, must be a terror with the stick.

When a managerallows himself to be governed by the "fans," who have a favorite in the club, and he hews along the line they will lay down for him, then just so soon will there be a revolt in the club, which sooner or later will culminate in something serious, so far as the progress of the club is concerned.

of a misinterpretation of the rules, and the captaios must be respectful in manner and speech when they do that. Start to-day, Mr. McLaughlio, spare in one who deserves a fine, and if fining the players won't make them conform to the rules, why, put them out of the game. You are there for the purpose of carrying out the rules governing the game, and you should do your duty. Play no favorites, but treat all alike.

A special telegram from Tax Vinonian's Petersburg correspondent last night states that John D. Foreman, the star pitcher of the Petersburg baseball team, was sold this afternoon to the Pittsburg National League team for $750. Foreman signed with the Pittsburgs at a salary of $250 a month. The Petersburg management paid him $150 per month. per month.

They play ball for money and are supported by the public, and if they don't want to be criticised adversely, they should strive to earn their salary, and do that for which they are employed, and they are expected to be gentlemen with it, not "roughs" for a city is generally judged by its representatives in all kinds of sports. ainds of sports.

Hallman and Leach will "twiri" for Portsmouth this afternoon, the former in the first game and the latter in the second. Knorr and Fiynn, will, in all probability, pitch for the visitors.

As soon as a ball player begins to feel his importance and thinks a team can't do without his services, it is time then for the manager of the team to "cast an anchor to the windward" and hold himself in readiness for the outbreak which will surely follow.

Lynchburg had a new pitcher in yes terday against Roanoke named Ames, who, no donbt, aimed to win his game, but "Hose Shoe" McCann was against him, so "wais de use" of trying to buck against the inevitable. "Skinny" had both his curves and his luck with him. Manager Doyle, of the New York team, has the right idea about the players on his team who persist in getting drunk. He has fined two of the managers in this league to follow.

Hall, Portsmouths second baseman low.

Hall, Portsmouths second baseman is a character on the order of the "Loos Fisherman," in Rice's Extravaganza of Evaugeline. He does his work, and does it nicely. He makes hot kicks, has no complaints to make, but keeps his own counsel, and is always on hand.

When a mark example is a good one their new house will be a monument to their enterprise. The lower floor of the building is now occupied by the Norfolk and Western as a ticket office and Ames & Burk, These concerns very cleverly agree to move out as soon as practicable, that he work of remodeling may be proceeded with,
